Mr Dear Compadre,

Hoping that these few lines find you in the very best of health, I write to you to confirm the contents of our telephone conversation of June 10, 1995.

You have agreed to grant me an audience at your residence at the above noted address on July 9, 1995 at 8:30 AM. My assistant, Ms. Beverly J. Horning, will be making copies of your file on Robert Byron Watson, Thomas Vallee, Daniel Groh, and anything that you may have on the alleged connection of James Earl Ray to the 1968 Presidential campaign of Governor George Wallace of Alabama. Said copies to be provided for 10-15 cents per page.

If your time and health allow, you will allow me to interview you on video for a few minutes on the Ray-Wallace angle.

Thanks for the information regarding the accommodations at The Red Horse Hotel near you. God bless. See you soon.

Thanking you, in advance, for the very vital oxygen of your assistance. I remain,

Always by your side in spirit,
